@Holy_TrinityCE Summer Term 2 Issue No.64

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are thankful that the sun has been out this week, the children have enjoyed morning and lunchtime break in warmth and sunshine.

Each class has participated in outdoor learning through a number of the curriculum areas.

Special Events:

On Monday the choir were given the opportunity to participate in a once in a lifetime edition of Come and Sing performance at the Southbank Centre. , the children met and sang three songs with the legendary Chaka Khan!

She fully engaged with all the children, talking about her life, asking the children questions about singing and school. She promised that she would one day visit our school!

Have a wonderful weekend

Ms Thomas

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

Learning In Focus

On Friday night our Yr4 pupils had a night away camping in Dulwich woods
Thank you to our lovely teachers that facilitated the night
It was indeed an experience for the children, and one that they will remember for a long time

Excellence in how we worship, learn and work together!

A graphic with a blue and orange background, containing the text: 'There is always a blessing to thank God for. Be grateful to Him everyday!'

*There is always a blessing to thank God for.
Be grateful to Him everyday!*

God of all creation we thank you for the gift of life.

We are ever so grateful for our Community in Lambeth, for families and for our school.

Thank you for our Holy Trinity children, for your protection over each and everyone including our wonderful and caring staff .

We are 4wks away from end of the academic year, and so much activities has taken place.

Our Yr6 pupils have been away on a residential trip, our KS1 pupils have attended various day trips, etc. All of these has ended up successfully and without any accidents.

We choose to look back at these events with joy, pride and with thanksgiving, and we are very proud of all or pupils.

As we all prepare to spend the weekend with our families, may God's grace keep and watch over every family, and may we all come back fully strengthened for the start of next week in Jesu name we pray. Amen

Have a restful and pleasant weekend.

ONLINE SAFETY NEWSFLASH

At The National College, our WakeUpWednesday guides empower and equip parents, carers and educators with the confidence and practical skills to be able to have informed and age-appropriate conversations with children about online safety, mental health and wellbeing, and climate change. What Parents & Educators Need to Know about PALWORLD

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

In Palworld, players head out into an environment where they must craft items and survive alongside creatures called 'Pals'. In this sense, it's similar to Minecraft: fight monsters while maintaining a base. Palworld has sold more than six million copies and often has over two million people playing online simultaneously.

MATURE CONTENT

While Palworld may look cute and cuddly, the game does have its more mature moments. For example, if you try to catch a Pal and don't succeed, the game displays a mild swear word. There are also minor references to inhumane acts like slavery when getting your Pals to perform certain tasks for you. While the presentation is intended to be humorous, this could still be seen as being in poor taste.

VIOLENCE

Palworld has been referred to as "Pokémon with guns" and with good reason. As the game progresses, Pals can be given firearms, explosives and other weapons, allowing them to fight by the player's side. There are several moments where cute animals use these guns to kill other Pals or fight against bosses. The violence is cartoonish and bloodless, but it's present.

SUGGESTIVE WRITING

Some of the Pals' descriptions - found in the game menu - can be very suggestive and adult in nature. The game makes a joke at balancing on the line between age-appropriate and mature content; playing on the contrast between the two while never being outright explicit. While it's possible that younger players won't notice this content, it's just as conceivable that they will.

ONLINE PLAY

Palworld can be played with other people online. On Xbox, players can only play with people on their friends list. On PC, however, up to 32 players can share in the same game, playing in a large online world, and these players may not necessarily be known to the host beforehand. It can be quite complicated to set up these servers. However, it can be quite complicated to set up these servers (online worlds) and they cost money to keep active.

DIFFICULTY

Despite its endearing visuals, Palworld is actually an extremely difficult game in places: defeating bosses, catching Pals and exploring the environment can all be very tricky. It takes a lot of skill - or working together with a friend - to be successful, which could be off-putting or even aggravating to a player expecting something more like Minecraft or Pokémon.

Advice for Parents & Educators

WATCH GAMEPLAY

Watching gameplay and reviews for Palworld on sites like YouTube is the best available means of gathering information on it, second only to playing it for yourself. Currently, there are plenty of videos showing this game off to the internet at large, along with detailed breakdowns of what can be found or done within it.

LEND A HAND

By learning the basics of the game - Pal catching, battling, crafting items and building up a base - you can help to lower the difficulty for younger players. This, in turn, decreases the likelihood that such players will need to look online for tips and tricks, where they could quite easily stumble across more violent and mature content associated with the game.

SET CONTENT LIMITS

As Palworld is available on Xbox Game Pass, it's easy for players to access it. Any player subscribed to this service can simply find the title on Game Pass and hit the download button. If a child or young person isn't allowed to play Palworld, the best way to prevent them downloading it regardless is to enable age limits on their account. Setting the limit below 12 will not allow users to install Palworld.

PLAY TOGETHER

By playing Palworld yourself, you'll have the best chance of catching any content that you don't think is suitable for children, as well as getting an idea of how violence is presented in the game. The conflict is cartoonish in nature - until players and Pals unlock the ability to use guns, at which point it can become more intense. It's likely best for you to give it a look and form your own opinion.

PLACE BOUNDARIES

Limit options when it comes to online play. For players on PC, they'll still be able to cooperate with friends through the game's multiplayer option, much like Xbox users. Just because they have the option to run a dedicated server that's open to anyone doesn't mean they need to take it. The risks of interacting with strangers can be significantly lowered or even eliminated entirely by playing on servers which are restricted to friends only.

10 Top Tips for Parents and Educators PROMOTING PHYSICAL WELLBEING

Physical activity isn't only beneficial for our bodies; it also plays a role in promoting mental wellbeing. With both the Euros and the Olympics this summer, it's an opportunity to engage young people in regular exercises which can reduce stress, improve mood and boost self-esteem. Despite these benefits, many children face barriers to participating in physical activity.

1 MAKE IT FUN

Integrate activities that children enjoy, such as playing games or dancing. Encourage participation in team sports or group activities to foster social relationships and a sense of belonging.

2 MIX MOVEMENT WITH LEARNING

Integrating physical activity into lessons can boost attention and cognitive function. Incorporating exercises into the curriculum can also enhance learning and students' overall health and wellbeing. Collaborate with teachers to create fun and educational activities.

3 CREATE OPPORTUNITIES

Provide clear choices for physical activity throughout the day. Both in-school and out-of-school, create an environment where playing sports and other activities, when feasible, are encouraged. Encourage children to stay active.

4 PROVIDE POSITIVE REINFORCEMENT

Praise and encourage children for their efforts and achievements in physical activity. Recognize their progress and celebrate their successes to reinforce positive behavior. Encourage them to try new activities, such as participating in sports, at assemblies or celebrating their achievements in newsletters.

5 VARIETY IS KEY

Introduce a variety of physical activities to keep children engaged and prevent boredom. From swimming and cycling to yoga and martial arts, trying different types of exercise can help children to discover what they enjoy most.

6 ENJOYMENT OVER COMPETITION

Encourage children to focus on the enjoyment of physical activity rather than winning or outperforming others. Emphasize effort, improvement and having fun with it. Encourage children to participate in activities that they enjoy, rather than focusing on competitive sports and other competitions.

7 SET REALISTIC GOALS

Help children set achievable physical activity targets based on their interests, skills and preferences. Celebrate their progress and successes to maintain motivation and enthusiasm.

8 MAKE IT ACCESSIBLE

Ensure that children have access to safe, suitable spaces for exercise at home, at school and in the community. Advocate for facilities and programs which accommodate different needs and abilities. Be a change maker in your community if facilities aren't already available.

9 LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Parents and carers can be positive role models by prioritizing their own exercise and leading children in their fitness routines. Involvement in physical activity can be a powerful opportunity for bonding and staying active together.

10 ENCOURAGE PERSISTENCE

Help children develop resilience and persistence by encouraging them to overcome challenges and setbacks in physical activity. Teach them the importance of perseverance and the value of effort in achieving their goals.
